PUBLICASALE SUBURBAN LOTS

DECLINE, DECLINE MEMPHIS AND CHARLESTON -ON THE-

> RAILROAD. We have the pleasure of announcing that several owners of the lands fronting on the MEMPHIS AND CHARLESTON MAILROAD.

in view of the growing demand for residences on this layorite Road, have authorized us to OFFER AT PUBLIC SALE, about

ONE HUNDRED LOTS, Varying in size from 5 to 20 acres, extending along the whole railroad front—the Bantyn, Tresevant and Breathist Tracts, embracing the Flag Station at the old Bace Track on Trezevant Avenue, the Park Station, Bantyn's, and the Baieigh road crowing, at Mr. Grier's, and the Baieigh road are immediately at and around the different Stations, node of them being beyond the distance of a few minutes' walk.

Fine bealth, pure wall water, and comparative exemption from maquitoes, are some of the great arvaoiages held out by the neighborhood over a city residence, while the economical advantages in the cost of ground are yet greater. yet greater.

Referring to the quick transition from city to ntry, from bu loss to re-frement, and to cision with which time may be divided to tween business arccations and domestic life, it has become at least important, if not is dipensable to the per ection of a country home that it been a line of failroad, and within half an hour's time of the convailences and advantages of edty. All these are pre-eminently found in the lands embraced in this sale. The proprietors are will not be not proprietors are will not be not present the property and the proprietors are will not be not present the property that the present the prese proprietors are willing to meet purchasers upon the most liberal terms, and will offer threa-lands for a greater or less cash payment, and on long ar short time, as the parties may desire, though it will be desired and expected that purchases will, in every case buy with a view to immediate improvement and occupation.
